The Time Expired Monday For Filing Names Of Candidates For Office Of Chancellor

Judge Hal H. Haynes, of this city, will this week be formally declared the republican nominee for re-election as chancellor of the first chancery division of Tennessee. The judiciary committee, of which Dr. M. M. Pearson, of Bristol, is the member from Sullivan county, meets at Greeneville Saturday for this purpose.

The time prescribed by the judiciary committee for filing of the names of candidates who wished to enter the primary expired Monday. A telephone message to the Herald-Courier, from O. B. Lovette, at Greeneville, was to the effect that no other candidate had filed, so the primary, which was called for December 11, will be defeated off, and Judge Haynes named as the party's candidate, without opposition.

It seems certain that he will have no opposition whatever at the general election.—Bristol Herald-Courier.

The dining room was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of pink and white, which was also carried out in the refreshments. About thirty were present.

$100 Reward—$100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Catarrh is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It cures Catarrh of the bladder, and cures the system, thereby destroying the four million of disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution. It is a sure cure for all cases of Catarrh. Proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100,000 dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. THE OLDEST WOMAN DEAD

"Aunt" Jane Black, of Bristol, Expired at the Reputed Age Of 112 Years

Bristol, Nov. 12.—Probably the oldest woman in Tennessee is dead. She was "aunt" Jane Black, 112 years old, who was found dead in bed here yesterday. She is said to have been half Indian and half negro, and her remarkable longevity is puzzling. Since the death of her husband, an aged full-blooded African, she has lived alone. "Aunt" Jane had long straight black hair and possessed remarkable strength even to her death. She claimed to have been 125 years, but more correct compilations placed her age at 112.
